JESSE COLLINS ENTERTAINMENT SET TO PRODUCE THE 78TH EMMY[®] AWARDS AIRING LIVE SEPT. 14 ON NBC AND PEACOCK

- NBCUniversal and the Television Academy jointly announced today that Jesse Collins Entertainment will produce the 78th Emmy[®] Awards, set for Monday, Sept. 14 at 8 p.m. ET/5 p.m. PT from the Peacock Theater at L.A. Live., airing live coast-to-coast on NBC and streaming live on Peacock.
- “In the year that we celebrate NBC’s 100th anniversary, we’re honored to be the home of the Emmy Awards and know we’re in great hands with Jesse and his team,” said Jen Neal, Executive Vice President, Live Events and Specials, NBC & Peacock. “His experience on previous Emmys and other high-profile broadcasts makes him a perfect choice to produce this beloved event.”
- “Our focus is on delivering an Emmys broadcast that feels current, creative, and reflective of where the industry is today,” said Television Academy Chair Cris Abrego. “Jesse, Dionne, and Jeannae have been strong partners in that effort over the past three years, and we’re excited to keep building together.”
- Jesse Collins, Dionne Harmon and Jeannae Rouzan-Clay will serve as Executive Producers.

- Nominations for the 78th Emmy® Awards will be announced by the Television Academy on Wednesday, July 8, streaming live at 8:30 a.m. PT on Emmys.com.
- The Creative Arts Emmy Awards, with ceremonies produced by Bob Bain Productions in association with the Television Academy, will take place on Saturday, Sept. 5, and Sunday, Sept. 6, 2026.

ABOUT NBC

Set to win 2025-26 season (all programming) in total viewers, NBC has long earned critical acclaim and ratings success. The network is celebrating its historic 100th anniversary with one of the most impressive overall lineups of recent times, including a primetime special celebrating the historic event. NBC has won more Emmy Awards than any network in television history. NBC's 2025-26 slate includes the popular Windy City Wednesday trifecta of "Chicago Fire," "Chicago Med" and "Chicago P.D."; the Thursday duo of mothership "Law & Order" and "Law & Order: SVU"; stellar comedies "St. Denis Medical" and "Happy's Place"; four-time Emmy Award-winning musical competition hit "The Voice"; and perennial #1 most-watched summer series "America's Got Talent." In late night, "Saturday Night Live" remains one of the highest-rated and most culturally relevant shows on television and the network earns solid viewership with "The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon" and "Late Night with Seth Meyers."
